A TEMPLE TOUR ALONG THE PALAR

Sriram V
Historian & Author

Archana & Arthi
Singers

It may be a dry river bed today but there can be no denying that Palar or the KshiraNadi was once the lifeline of what is now the southern part of Andhra and the districts of Kanchipuram and Vellore in Tamil Nadu. On its banks were fought historic battles and many kings left behind their impress. The Gods too favoured this place given the plethora of temples along the river. In the medieval period, the Nayaks of Gingee, the Nawabs of Arcot and the English East India Company too created history by Palar.

Music too flourished here. The 15th century composer Arunagirinathar visited Virinchipuram and it was also the ancestral village of MuthuswamiDikshitar. The Azhwars adored Thiruvehka in song.

Come, join historian Sriram V, accompanied by singers Archana and Arthi, on a tour of temples and historic spots along the Palar.

Our journey will take us to Thiruparkadal, Vellore, Virinchipuram and surroundings. The tour, by AC coach, will leave from Chennai on Saturday, 5th January at 6am. We will return on Sunday evening to Chennai by 8.00 pm or so.
